

GREATER NORTHWEST RAIL SUMMIT

October 8-9, 2024

Spokane, Washington | Virtual Attendance Available

Register to attend at www.nwsummit.org

The Greater Northwest Rail Summit brings together rail experts, users, and advocates to enhance and expand the freight and passenger rail network in the Greater Northwest. With unprecedented funding at the national level, now is the time to focus local attention and investment on a regional High Performance Rail network. Our rail corridors are most productive when they move both people and goods efficiently, safely, and reliably.

Tuesday, Oct. 8 | Day 1

7:00am	Registration Opens
8:00am	Breakfast Served
8:30am - 8:45am	Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Brief background, quick overview of PNWER RIA• Vision for the event, objectives, outcomes
8:45am - 9:00am	Spokane as a Rail Hub The capital of the Inland Empire, Spokane is a hub for commerce, tourism, and freight movement. Welcoming us to Spokane and the 2024 Greater Northwest Rail Summit is four-term Spokane County Commissioner, Al French. Commissioner French also sits on the governing board of the Palouse and Coulee City Railroad (the largest state-owned shortline railroad in the Northwest), chairs the Spokane Regional Transportation Council, and sits on the Washington State Freight Mobility Strategic Investment Board. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Al French, Spokane County Commissioner
9:30am - 10:30am	Rail as the Backbone of Communities Whether moving agricultural products to the coast or students to the first day of college, rail is the backbone of many communities across the Greater Northwest. What opportunities does rail represent and what challenges come from having rail infrastructure present in our communities?
10:40am - 12:00pm	Renaissance for Passenger Rail across America: From Washington DC to Your Local Depot With unprecedented funding at the national level, we're seeing long-overdue attention and investment in the Greater Northwest's passenger rail network. Hear updates on:

12:15pm - 1:15pm	Lunch Plenary: Looking Ahead at the National Rail Network The excitement around restored passenger rail service is not limited to the Greater Northwest. How are expansion plans and strategic investments across the country advancing a national rail network and how will that benefit our region?
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Green Farms to Green Ports: Feeding the World Starts with a Short Line Short line railroads are the capillaries through which agricultural and manufactured goods flow to the Class I railroad arteries. Investing in and maintaining these critical corridors supports local economies, global trade, and the success of our inland port authorities.
2:30pm - 3:30pm	Green Farms to Green Ports: Strengthening Supply Chains Through Rail Investment Across the Greater Northwest, trains moved 50.1 million tons of freight in 2021, keeping the equivalent of 4.1 million trucks off the road. Recent projects show how ports and railroads work together to connect our inland farms with international markets and to move agricultural products with lower emissions.

8:45am - 9:45am	Northwest Port & Rail Investment Strategy Strategic investments in our ports, mainline rail corridors, and shortline railroads can help move goods to and from the coast and boost the economy. How are each of these key players prioritizing investments across our region, and how can we work together to build a robust freight network?
9:50am - 10:50am	Preparing Rural Communities Passenger Rail Tourism With many communities depending on tourism to support their local economy, passenger rail provides tremendous opportunities for our region to showcase its unique natural, cultural, and historic attractions. How can rural farming communities or small mountain towns start to plan for tourists arriving by rail? What should small towns consider as they start to build out a tourism-by-rail industry?
11:00am - 12:00pm	Town to Town: Knitting Together a Multi-state Rail Corridor A regional rail strategy starts at the local level. How are each of the Northwest states prioritizing rail investments and how can we coordinate between jurisdictions to best achieve High Performance Rail corridors?
12:15pm - 1:15pm	Lunch Plenary: Reauthorization - What's next for federal passenger and freight rail funding? The IIJA authorized unprecedented investments in our rail system. The push for re-authorization in 2025 has already started. What should we know about the federal budgeting process and how will it impact local investments in the Greater Northwest?
1:30pm - 2:30pm	Green Rail Infrastructure: Saving Salmon & Enhancing Air Quality Investments in rail infrastructure can move people and goods more quickly while also producing environmental benefits for our communities.
